

Christopher Oddleifson, President and Chief Executive Officer, Rockland Trust Company

Christopher Oddleifson is the President and Chief Executive Officer of Rockland Trust Company and its parent, Independent Bank Corp. Rockland Trust, a full service commercial and retail bank, serves more than 200,000 customers with 1,100 employees. Rockland Trust has $7.2 billion in assets, $2.7 billion in assets under management and 100 retail branches and other offices located in Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

Active in industry and community affairs, Christopher is the Chairman of the Massachusetts Housing Partnership, Chairman of the South Shore Hospital Board, and is on the Board of the South Shore Health and Educational Corporation. He is a member of the Commonwealth of MA Economic Development Planning Council and the Campaign Advisory Team for the Social Equity Campaign of the Somerville Community Corporation. He recently ended his term as a member of the Boston Federal Reserve Bank Community Development Institution Advisory Council and also completed ten years as a member of the Old Colony Council's Boy Scouts of America Board of Directors. Christopher has served as Chairman and a member of the Campaign Cabinet of the United Way of Greater Plymouth County Campaign. In addition, he has served as Chairman and Board member of the Cape Cod Community College and on the Board of Directors of the Massachusetts Bankers Association, serving as its Chairman during 2009-2010.

Previously, Christopher was the President of First Union Home Equity Bank, a national banking subsidiary of First Union Corporation, and the Executive Vice President, responsible for Consumer Banking, for Signet Bank in Richmond, VA. He has also worked as a management consultant for Booz, Allen and Hamilton.

Christopher holds a Bachelor's Degree in Mechanical Engineering from Cornell University and a Master's Degree in Business Administration from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania.