

Corby Megorden, MEA, CCEA

Corby is a principal of Ennis Legacy Partners, an Exit Planning Firm that specializes in supporting the owners of small- to mid-sized plan their exits. He has decades of executive experience helping organizations identify and successfully navigate the challenges of growth, risk, and change. His expertise covers operations, program management, and financial development and has been tested in a variety of contexts including non-profits, industry, and the military. As the VP of Operations for TeleCommunication Systems, he created corporate financial management, contracting, budgeting, and corporate merger processes, helping guide the company from startup to an $ 80 M publicly traded company. As Administrator of a 4,000 member church, he developed structures, processes and procedures to manage finances and operations through periods of rapid growth, economic challenges, and radical organizational change, bringing stability and maintaining the fiscal health of the church. He is a retired Captain with the Naval Reserves, serving the last 11 years of his 22-year tenure as an Executive or Commanding Officer. With a Masters in Engineering Administration and 14 years as a licensed pastor, he brings a unique combination of knowledge of the processes and interpersonal dynamics in which organization function. He is a Certified Cost Estimator/Analyst (ICEAA).

Corby has served on numerous non-profit boards including Covenant Life School, Christ Church of Mt. Airy, and ONE-U Campus Ministries. He and his wife Vilma live in Gaithersburg, MD. They have two married daughters.

Summary of Knowledge and Experience

- Leadership and Management: For-Profit & Non-Profit Organizations
- Masters in Engineering Administration
- Certified Cost Analyst/Estimator
- Operations
- Strategic Business Financial Planning & Controls
- Program Management
- Strategic Planning
- Training in Counseling
- Board of Directors
- Extensive Professional Network