

Rudi Scheiber-Kurtz, CEO and Founder, Next Stage Solutions, Inc.

Rudi Scheiber-Kurtz is the CEO and Founder of Next Stage Solutions, Inc. (NSS), which she founded in 2002. NSS is a finance and business advisory firm that partners with CEOs and Business Owners in the decision making process to optimize their business value. Rudi's clients include dozens of businesses she has helped grow and increase their profitability. She created and produced the popular CEO Workshops and stars in the Rudi/Tuesday Webisode Series, a video series specifically designed for CEOs and business owners addressing challenges they routinely face.

Prior to NSS, Rudi worked for Scott Paper Company, Cabot Advertising and WGBH Boston in the capacity of Manager with P&L responsibilities. Rudi is active in the greater Boston business community. She is a board member and president-elect for XPX Boston and an advisory board member for Sweet Scoop. Rudi is a member with the Advanced Manufacturers Committee and is on the Business Advisory Council to the Dean of the Simmons School of Management in Boston.

Growing up in Switzerland, Rudi was trained as a Botanical Pharmacist, holds a BS from Lesley University and an MBA from the Simmons School of Management. She loves jazz, art and traveling with her husband, Michael.
